

Chapter 5 - Mini Quiz

1. A _____ application is any application that involves graphics, audio, video or animation.
2. Microsoft Office is an example of a software _____.
3. A _____ license gives a company permission to install software on multiple computers.
4. A _____ version of software is a preliminary version, given out free to users, that is known to contain bugs.
5. A point or dot on the screen is called a _____.
6. Illegally copying or distributing software is called _____.
7. Word processing falls in the software category _____.
8. Web browsers fall into the software category _____.
9. Computer games fall into the software category _____.